The Confirmation Protocols

4. In addition to the dates and deadlines listed above, the following procedures shall govern the Confirmation Proceedings:

- a. Protective Order. The Protective Order entered by the Court, as amended from time to time, shall govern all discovery in connection with the Confirmation Proceedings. The currently operative Protective Order is the Third Amended Protective Order [ECF No. 1935].
- b. Document Reserve for Confirmation. As of the date of the entry of this Order, the Debtors will reestablish the document reserve created in connection with the prior confirmation proceedings in this case (the “Document Reserve for Confirmation”). To the extent not already deposited, the Debtors will deposit into the reserve (i) non-privileged materials the Debtors have produced in these Chapter 11 Cases, including, without limitation, materials the Debtors have produced in response to requests from certain creditor constituencies and non-privileged materials the Debtors have produced in the MDL and other pre-petition civil litigation; (ii) transcripts of depositions of the Debtors’ current and former employees, directors, officers, and advisors, taken in prepetition civil litigation or in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases; (iii) documents and information the Debtors determine to be potentially relevant to the Confirmation Proceedings; and (iv) any documents produced by any party in connection with the Confirmation Proceedings. For the avoidance of doubt, any material that includes or reflects any type of confidentiality designation, whether pursuant to a protective order in any pre-petition civil litigation or in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, is governed by the Protective Order without any need to re-designate such material.
- c. Additional Discovery Requests. Any Requesting Party that propounds a request for additional document or testimonial discovery must (i) represent that the Requesting Party has conducted a reasonable search of the Document Reserve for Confirmation and believes that the documents, information, or testimony it seeks is not available in the Document Reserve for Confirmation, and (ii) state and explain the basis for the Requesting Party’s good faith belief that the additional discovery it seeks is relevant to the Confirmation Proceedings.
- d. Discovery Dispute Resolution. In the event of a dispute with respect to one or more discovery requests, counsel for the Producing Party and for the Requesting Party shall promptly meet and confer in good faith to attempt to resolve the dispute. If, notwithstanding their good faith efforts to do so, such Parties are unable to resolve such discovery dispute, the Party wishing to bring the dispute to the Court shall promptly inform the Court by emailed letter, no longer than two single-spaced pages in length, of the nature of the dispute and shall request a telephonic discovery conference. If the opposing Party wishes to respond, it must respond by emailed letter, no longer than two single-spaced pages in length, within two business days. At the conference, the Parties to the dispute must be prepared to discuss with the Court all efforts to resolve such dispute.

- e. Limitations on Interrogatories and Requests for Admission. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, no Requesting Party shall serve any interrogatories or requests for admission in connection with the Confirmation Proceedings.
- f. Assertions of Privilege. If any Producing Party withholds or redacts any materials on the grounds of privilege, work product, or any other type of protection or immunity from disclosure, such Producing Party shall provide a categorical privilege log consistent with the Protective Order in these Chapter 11 Cases, which shall be placed in the Document Reserve for Confirmation. To the extent such materials were previously withheld or redacted on the grounds of privilege, work product, or any other type of protection or immunity from disclosure, in connection with production in the MDL, in other pre-petition civil litigations, or in these Chapter 11 Cases, such prior determination (as reflected in designations on the materials themselves or in the relevant privilege log(s)) control and are not open to reconsideration. A Producing Party shall provide its initial privilege log(s) no later than the date on which it substantially completes production of documents in response to document requests.
- g. Testimony. Only persons for whom a witness declaration has been delivered, filed, and served will be allowed to testify. All testimony will be taken live at trial unless otherwise ordered by the Court.
- h. Expert Discovery. Any expert retained or specially employed to provide expert testimony in connection with the Confirmation Proceedings shall submit an expert report that satisfies the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2)(B) (made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7026), and, on or before the deadline provided by this Order, shall produce the expert materials required to be disclosed by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26 (made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7026). An expert's report(s) shall constitute that expert's direct testimony. Parties shall have the right to amend or supplement such direct testimony, solely to respond to information disclosed or opinions expressed after the date of such expert's report(s), by written declaration exchanged and submitted by the deadlines provided by this Order. No drafts of any part or any report or declaration of any expert will be subject to production or other disclosure. This protection is in addition to, and does not limit or replace, the protections of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(B) (applicable here under Bankruptcy Rule 7026).

- i. Extension of Deadlines. The Debtors, in consultation with the UCC, the AHC, the MSGE, and the State AG Negotiating Committee, may extend any deadline set forth above, excluding the date of the Confirmation Hearing, by a notice of such extension on the docket of these chapter 11 cases.
- j. Effect of the Case Management Procedures. The Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York (the “Local Rules”), and the operative Second Amended Order Establishing Certain Notice, Case Management, and Administrative Procedures [ECF No. 498] apply to these Confirmation Proceedings. To the extent there is a conflict between any of the foregoing and this Order, this Order shall govern in all respects.
- k. Reservation of Rights. In the event that there is permissible litigation against any Shareholder Released Party, no party referred to here as a non-prejudiced party, and no party formed as a result of the Plan, which is a future party, shall be prejudiced in any way in connection with such litigation by its decision to limit or forego the presentation of evidence, or forego cross-examination of any witness in connection with the confirmation of the Plan, including at the Confirmation Hearing. If the Plan is not confirmed or if Plan confirmation is reversed on appeal, no non-prejudiced party nor future party shall be prejudiced in any way in connection with any future proceeding based on its decision to limit or forego the presentation of evidence, or forego cross-examination of any witness in connection with the confirmation of the Plan, including at the Confirmation Hearing. Nothing that occurs at the Confirmation Hearing or in relation thereto shall constitute or be deemed an agreement or disagreement in any future proceeding by any non-prejudiced party or future party with any position taken or evidence offered by any other party at the Confirmation Hearing provided that nothing herein shall operate to limit or reduce the binding nature of the Plan confirmation order or any related findings on any party. For the avoidance of doubt, all parties agree and acknowledge that the Debtors, UCC, any public or private claimant that is not objecting to the Plan, any Shareholder Released Party, and any future party is intended to be a non-prejudiced party.

5. Notice of this Order will be provided as to (a) the entities on the Master Service List (as defined in the Second Amended Order Establishing Certain Notice, Case Management, and Administrative Procedures entered on November 18, 2019 [ECF No. 498] and available on the Debtors’ case website at <https://restructuring.ra.kroll.com/purduepharma>) and (b) any person or entity with a particularized interest in the subject matter of this Motion (the “Notice Parties”). No further notice shall be required.

6. The Debtors are authorized to take all reasonable actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Order.

7. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.

SO ORDERED.
